Election Figures are Here Given

ROOSEVELT'S PLURALITY IS DOUBLE MCKINLEY'S

Missouri is Placed in the Republican Column.

COLORADO IS STILL IN A TANGLE

Indiana Democrats Elect Two Congressmen—Dawson Wins W. Va. Governorship.

New York, Nov. 10.—Roosevelt's clean sweep has broken all records for large pluralities. His popular vote is the largest ever given a presidential candidate. It is estimated today at 2,090,000, which is more than double the plurality received by McKinley in 1900, and more than three times the McKinley plurality in 1896. In 1896 McKinley's popular plurality was 601,834, and in 1900 was 349,790.

MISSOURI.
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 10.—Incomplete returns today from 90 of 110 counties in Missouri give these figures:
Roosevelt 39,967; Parker, 25,434; Folk, Dem., 56,811; Walbridge, Rep., 21,689. This gives the Republican national ticket a plurality of 14,553 and Folk a plurality of 35,121. This count includes all big cities and is the most complete so far made.

INDIANA.
Indianapolis, Nov. 10.—The state Republican ticket ran behind the national ticket about 5,000. Belated returns show that the Republican plurality is not much over 60,000 although State Republican Chairman Goodrich said this morning that the final figures will show 75,000. Two Democratic members of Congress were elected.

WEST VIRGINIA.
Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 10.—There is no appreciable change in the election results today. Dawson's majority may be cut down to about 8,000 or less, but the plurality for Roosevelt will be about 31,000. The legislature seems to be about 39 Republican on joint ballot.

COLORADO.
Denver, Colo., Nov. 10.—The situation in Colorado still is in a tangle today, but there now is reason to believe that Adams, Dem., is elected governor by about 7,000. Roosevelt electors have carried the state by about 20,000. The returns are still very incomplete but 60 per cent of the vote being counted. Denver is Democratic by 4,000. Republicans today generally admit the election of Adams.

NEW GOVERNORS CHOSEN

Colorado	Adams, Dem.
Connecticut	Roberts, Rep.
Delaware	Lea, Rep.
Florida	Broward, Dem.

GOVERNOR ELECT

Is Confined to His Home, Having Been Exposed to Smallpox.
Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 10.—J. Frank Hanley, governor-elect of Indiana, is confined to his home, having been exposed to smallpox Sunday. He does not care to leave the house till he learns whether or not he has contracted the disease.

Robert Potts, with Union B. Hunt, ex-secretary of state, and other Republican leaders, took dinner at the Hanley home Sunday. Potts was broken out at the time with smallpox in a virulent form, but the disease was not diagnosed till that night.
Physicians say there may be no danger, as there was no fever when Potts was at the Hanley home.

NOT COMPLETE ARE RETURNS ON THE RESULT

But Roosevelt is Given 343 Electoral Votes.

Missouri Placed in Republican Column for President—The Figures Here Given.

New York, Nov. 10.—With the election returns still incomplete, the plurality of President Roosevelt in the nation, according to all indications, will exceed 1,500,000, the greatest plurality ever given an American candidate. The nearest approach to this vote was in 1896, when McKinley received a plurality approximating 850,000, and in 1872, when Grant received 762,991 plurality. Interest centers in Missouri and Maryland. Late returns indicate that the former state is in the Republican column so far as presidential electors are concerned, but that Joseph W. Folk, the Democratic candidate, has been elected governor. In Maryland the presidential vote will probably be cast for President Roosevelt. Late returns indicate that Thomas A. Smith (Dem.) has been elected to congress in the First district by 450 plurality.

The New York city returns are still incomplete, but the amazement over the result has not subsided. Judge Parker carried Greater New York by nearly 41,000 votes.

Following are the Republican and Democratic pluralities in the various states, based on the latest returns:

State	Parker, Roosevelt.
Alabama	75,000
Arkansas	30,000
California	100,000
Colorado	15,000
Connecticut	38,000
Delaware	4,900
Florida	20,000
Georgia	65,000
Idaho	20,000
Illinois	225,000
Indiana	75,000
Iowa	130,000
Kansas	100,000
Kentucky	14,000
Louisiana	35,000
Maine	35,000
Maryland	1,000
Massachusetts	86,000
Michigan	150,000
Minnesota	125,000
Mississippi	50,000
Missouri	10,000
Montana	10,000
Nebraska	75,000
Nevada	3,000
New Hampshire	20,000
New Jersey	70,000
New York	174,000
North Carolina	50,000
North Dakota	20,000
Ohio	210,000
Oregon	40,000
Pennsylvania	485,000
Rhode Island	16,000
South Carolina	50,000
South Dakota	40,000
Tennessee	20,000
Texas	100,000
Utah	12,000
Vermont	20,000
Virginia	25,000
Washington	30,000
West Virginia	20,000
Wisconsin	60,000
Wyoming	5,000
Electoral vote—Roosevelt, 343; Parker, 123.

NEBRASKA

Complete Returns Required to Tell Who Has Been Elected Governor There.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 10.—Complete returns will be required to determine who is elected governor of Nebraska. Outside of governor, however, the Republicans have made a clean sweep on national, state, congressional and legislative tickets. For governor both sides exhibit figures which they say will substantiate their claims for the election of their respective candidates. President Roosevelt carried the state by probably 75,000. Only two congressional districts, the Second and Third, were at any time in doubt, and the latest figures place them in the Republican column, thus giving a solid Republican delegation from Nebraska. The legislative returns are still quite incomplete, but from figures available it is reasonably certain that both houses of the legislature will be clearly Republican. The Socialist vote was a complete surprise and affected the local tickets to a large extent, the greater defection to their ranks coming from the Democrats.

WISCONSIN.

Milwaukee, Nov. 10.—The result of the election in Wisconsin shows that Roosevelt ran ahead of every ticket and carried the state by a plurality estimated at between 60,000 and 75,000; that Governor LaFollette has been re-elected by a plurality of about 50,000, and that the congressional complexion remains unchanged from two years ago. The legislature, which is to elect a United States senator to succeed Joseph V. Quarles, is largely Republican. One of the surprises in the election was the big increase in the vote of the Social Democratic party. Four years ago that party polled 4,458 votes in Milwaukee county; two years ago 10,704, and in this election 18,120. The Social Democrats elected four assemblymen and one senator to the legislature.

COLORADO.
Denver, Colo., Nov. 10.—Roosevelt's plurality in Colorado has been increased by later returns and may run above 15,000. Republicans and Democrats claim the election of governor and congressman-at-large, and the Republicans will contest the state election on the ground of frauds in Denver. On the face of nearly complete returns Adams has carried Denver county by 4,500 plurality, and he appears to have a safe lead over Peabody without this county. According to the returns in the Times, Adams plurality in the state is a little over 10,000. The Times concedes that the result is in doubt as to the other state officers, but claims the legislature to be Republican. (Continued on Page 6.)

RESULT IN OHIO LATE RETURNS SWELL FIGURES

Republicans Carry State by Over 200,000

Carrying 70 of the 88 Counties—Contest in Fifth District—The Latest Returns.

Columbus, O., Nov. 10.—Based upon complete returns from practically every county in the state, Chairman Dick today issued a bulletin estimating the Republican plurality in Ohio at 240,000.

Every Congressional district, save the Fourth, which Harvey Garber, Democrat, is returned, has been safely carried by the Republicans. The doubtful Fifth shows the election of Campbell, Republican, by 200.

Columbus, Nov. 10.—The Republican state executive committee has complete reports from every county in Ohio, either unofficial footings or returns and estimates by the county committees. The latest footings of these figures put Roosevelt 210,435 ahead of Parker in Ohio, with official returns as received steadily increasing these figures. The Republicans carried 70 counties, eight more than Herrick had; the Democrats carried 18 counties.

Republican counties: Adams, 300; Allen, 300; Ashtabula, 7,191; Athens, 4,758; Belmont, 3,300; Carroll, 1,100; Champaign, 1,887; Clarke, 4,000; Clermont, 300; Clinton, 2,200; Columbiana, 4,000; Cuyahoga, 34,000; Darke, 300; Delaware, 1,200; Erie, 2,000; Fayette, 1,000; Franklin, 10,990; Fulton, 1,700; Galia, 2,000; Geauga, 2,876; Greene, 3,019; Guernsey, 2,000; Hamilton, 36,510; Hancock, 1,606; Hardin, 800; Harrison, 1,500; Highland, 700; Hocking, 500; Huron, 3,000; Jackson, 3,279; Jefferson, 4,700; Knox, 1,201; Lake, 2,540; Lawrence, 3,800; Licking, 700; Logan, 3,051; Lorain, 6,028; Lucas, 11,000; Madison, 950; Mahoning, 5,855; Marion, 887; Medina, 2,100; Meigs, 2,100; Miami, 3,178; Montgomery, 6,000; Morgan, 489; Morrow, 700; Muskingum, 2,050; Noble, 1,000; Paulding, 700; Perry, 2,100; Portage, 1,800; Preble, 500; Richland, 200; Ross, 900; Scioto, 1,100; Seneca, 176; Stark, 9,060; Summit, 3,000; Trumbull, 5,356; Tuscarawas, 1,200; Union, 1,700; Van Wert, 800; Vinton, 600; Warren, 2,295; Washington, 2,000; Wayne, 501; Williams, 1,250; Wood, 3,500; Wyandot, 200. Total, 221,173 gross; 210,435 net.

Democratic counties: Ashland, 255; Auglaize, 600; Brown, 800; Butler, 270; Coshocton, 150; Crawford, 1,200; Deane, 125; Fairfield, 600; Henry, 500; Holmes, 1,000; Mercer, 1,500; Monroe, 848; Ottawa, 269; Pickaway, 510; Pike, 300; Putnam, 1,000; Sandusky, 200; Shelby, 500. Total 10,738.

It is noted that the largest Republican gains came from the mining and laboring districts, although all the 88 counties showed gains except Pike county, which had a Democratic gain of 26.

The Republicans gained three congressmen by carrying all of the congressional districts except the Fourth, in which Harvey C. Garber was re-elected by 1,600, or less than one-third the usual Democratic plurality of that district. The only close contest in the state was the election of Dawes (Rep.) over Schneider (Dem.) in the Fifteenth congressional district, which gave Roosevelt over 8,000 plurality and Dawes only 200. The official count is awaited with interest in the Fifteenth district, which, as constituted now, was never lost by the Republicans. Dawes secured the nomination after a bitter contest, after which his opponents for the nomination carried the fight to the polls.

Cuyahoga County.
Cleveland, O., Nov. 10.—Cleveland city and Cuyahoga county complete give Roosevelt 57,272, Parker 22,208. Roosevelt's plurality, 35,064, is the largest ever given a candidate for an electoral office in this county. R. C. Wright for county auditor was the only Democrat elected on the county ticket.

Expresses His Thanks to All Democrats

DEFEATED CANDIDATE CALLS ON THE PEOPLE

To Realize the Danger from Gigantic Trusts.

HE DISCUSSES THE DIFFICULTIES ENCOUNTERED BY THE PARTY—Judge Parker Will Never Again Seek a Public Office.

Esopus, N. Y., Nov. 10.—Judge Parker has issued a personal address to "The Democracy of the Nation." In it he declared that he will never seek a nomination for public office, but will be an earnest party worker. Then he adds:

"Before long the people will realize that the tariffed trusts and illegal combinations are absorbing the wealth of the nation. Then they will wish to throw off the leeches. When that time comes—and come it will—the people will turn to the Democratic party for relief, and the party should be ready."

Judge Parker's statement in full follows:

"To the Democracy of the Nation: Our thanks are due to the members of the National Committee and to the Executive Committee in charge of the campaign for most unselfish, capable and brilliant party service. All that it was possible for men to do they did, but our difficulty was beyond the reach of party managers."

"I am most grateful to them and wish in this general way to extend my thanks to the workers, as well as to the rank and file all over the country. I know how hard they struggled against overwhelming odds, and I only wish I could take each one by the hand and thank him."

"Deeply as I regretted leaving the bench at the time, in the presence of overwhelming defeat, I do not lament it. I thought it was my duty. In the light of my present information I am now even more confident that I did right. I shall never seek a nomination for public office, but I shall, to the best of my ability, serve the party that honored me, and through the party serve my country."

"The party has in the near future a great mission. Before long the people will realize that the tariffed trusts and illegal combinations are absorbing the wealth of the nation. Then they will wish to throw off these leeches, but the Republican party will not aid them to do it for its leaders appreciate too well the uses to which the moneys of the trusts can be put in political campaigns."

"When that time comes, and come it will, the people will turn to the Democratic party for relief, and the party should be ready—ready with an organization of patriotic citizens covering every election district, who are willing to work for the love of the cause—an organization supported by as many township, city, county and state officers as we are able to elect in the meantime. We entered this campaign with every Northern, Western and Eastern state, save one, in Republican control. This gave to that party a large army of office holders reaching into every hamlet, many of whom gladly followed the examples set for them by the members of the President's Cabinet, in devoting their time and services to the party."

"To accomplish much in this direction, however, we must forget the difficulties of the past. If any one suspects his neighbor of treachery, let him not hint of his suspicion. If he knows he has deserted us, let him not tell it. Our forces have been weakened by divisions. We have quarreled at times over non-essentials."

"If we would help the people, if we would furnish an organization through which they may be relieved of a party that has grown so corrupt that it will gladly enter into partnership with trusts to secure money for election purposes, we must forget the difficulties of the past and begin this day to build up where it may be needed a broad and effective organization. And we must be constantly teaching, through the press and from the platform, apprise the people of the way the vicious tariff circle works."

"We must bring home to them at other than election times the fact that money contributed to the Republican party by the trusts is not only dishonest money, but it is given that the trusts may, without hindrance, take a much larger urn from the people. "In the presence of a defeat that would take away all personal ambition were it true that otherwise it possessed me, I do not hesitate to say that in my opinion the greatest moral question which now confronts us is: "Shall the trusts and corporations be prevented from contributing money to control or to aid in controlling elections?" "Such services as I can render in that or any other direction will be gladly rendered. And I beg the co-operation, as a fellow worker, of every Democrat in the country."

"ALTON B. PARKER."

DANGER IS SEEN IN THE VICTORY OF REPUBLICANS

Conservative Men Fear the Consequences.

Bridle Now Taken Off the President May Run Amuck—Observations on the Result.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Republicans who are not blind devotees of President Roosevelt were sobered when they found time to reflect on the possible consequences to the party of the overwhelming triumph achieved by their candidate in the election.

They admit that the result must be regarded as a personal triumph for the President, and that the effect will be to make him the practical dictator of the party, to a far greater degree than had been the case with any President of this generation.

Belief in himself and strong-headedness have been his dominant trait through his career, and they have not shown any tendency to diminish during the three years he has occupied the chief magistracy and administered the affairs of the Nation, along lines supposed to have been marked out by his predecessor.

During this period he has sought boldly and persistently to impress his will on the leaders of his party, in and out of Congress, and if he has not gone to extremes in trying to have his own way, his moderation has been the result of his ambition to secure the nomination, which he received at Chicago, and the election which came to him on Tuesday, and not of any change in his character or loss of faith in his own wisdom and statesmanship.

Now that his ambition has been achieved under circumstances calculated to inflate the vanity of even a naturally modest and self-distrustful man, what will be the effect on Roosevelt?

This is the question which many Republicans, some of them members of the administration, were asking themselves and one another in effect of greatly tempering their joy over the victory. They scent danger ahead.

When the new congress comes in, and Roosevelt finds himself thoroughly entrenched in power, in his own right, by one of the largest popular majorities ever given a chief magistrate, the leaders foresee an epoch bulging with possibilities of peril for the party. If the Republican majority in Congress attempts to assert itself, and resist the dictates of the President, there will be bickerings and quarrels, sure to split the party into warring factions.

The majority proves subservient to the President and does his will regardless of their own judgment, and the desires and interests of their constituents, the final effect will be equally disastrous.

The latter is the danger that is most feared, apparently for the reason that the new Congress will have in it a large number of men without experience in Washington life; and these men always prove most susceptible to executive influence, rallying to the support of the President because of the patronage they expect to receive from him, and by which they hope to hold on to the place they have secured in Congress.

The rules of the House are such that even with a powerful minority, the majority can practically do as it pleases. But in the new Congress the minority will be unusually weak, at least numerically.

One of the projects it is believed the President will insist on attempting to carry into effect, is the cutting down of the representation in Congress and the electoral college of the Southern States that have disfranchised illiterate negroes.

A SHELL BURST KILLING 600 MEN AT PORT ARTHUR

Rumored Stoessel Asks for Armistice.

Bombardment by Japanese Continues Without Interruption—Czar in Poland—War News.

Chefoo, Nov. 10.—(Bulletin)—A shell on November 6 demolished a land mine at one of Port Arthur's forts. Between six and seven hundred Russians were killed or wounded. It is reported that the recent assaults by the Japanese on Elise Shan fort have been repulsed.

Czar in Poland.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 10.—The Czar arrived at Lodz, Poland, this morning. Replying to a deputation of noblemen, his majesty declared the assurance of his majesty should serve to unite the brotherhood of the empire. A deputation of citizens was also received. Following this, the Czar reviewed 20,000 troops who are going to the far East.

Rumor of an Armistice.

Tokyo, Nov. 10.—It is reported today that General Stoessel in command of the Russian troops at Port Arthur, has asked for an armistice. The purpose of the request is not stated. The Japanese are said to have been inflamed by the Russian abuse of the Japanese wounded, and it is therefore hoped that Stoessel will capitulate to prevent the Japanese troops from avenging the reported atrocities.

Bombardment Proceeding.
Rome, Nov. 10.—A dispatch to the Giornale di Roma today from Tokyo says the bombardment of Port Arthur by the Japanese under General Nogai is proceeding without interruption. The preparations, he adds are now on foot for a fresh general assault on the Russian defenses.

Russians Rejoice.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 10.—There is the greatest rejoicing here at the failure of the recent Japanese attacks on Port Arthur. The papers are filled with columns of praise, interspersed with poems eulogizing the gallant defense made by General Stoessel and the heroic garrison. The firm conviction prevails here that General Stoessel will never surrender, and that if the fortress falls the garrison will go down fighting. According to information received by the war office 50,000 is a low estimate of the Japanese losses before Port Arthur.

Bombardment of Port Arthur.

Chefoo, Nov. 10.—The Japanese continue to bombard Port Arthur, and the shells are falling so incessantly that the Russians have practically abandoned the repair of the works protecting the harbor. Citizen volunteers and the police are now reinforcing the garrisons of the forts, according to the stories of Chinese arriving here, 60 of whom left Port Arthur on Nov. 8 owing to the high price of food. So many men were killed on both sides during the last assault that many bodies lay unburied for days, and in some instances dogs which had been driven from the town assuaged their hunger by eating the dead.

Cause of the Riots.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 10.—The conscript and reserve men riots in various parts of Russia are attracting much attention. The Novoe Vremya attributes the whole evil to vodka, pointing out that in all countries where conscription prevails recruits bound for the front consider that they have the right to become intoxicated, and that when this is denied them they proceed to break into brandy shops. The paper suggests that the sooner the treasury finds another way of filling its coffers the better.

WHITECAPS

Who Whipped a Man and Woman Threaten to Come Again.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 10.—Near Gravel Switch, Ky., whitecaps whipped N. N. Pope and a woman. Bloodhounds were sent from Lexington, but when they were taken to the house of Pope to strike the trail three men appeared, admitting that they were concerned in the whipping and warned Pope that he would be again visited if he persisted in an investigation. The dogs were killed and sent back.

BY THE GRANDMOTHER

Who Committed Suicide. Children are Believed to Have Been Killed.

Columbus, O., Nov. 10.—Coroner Murphy believes that the Wyant children and their grandmother, Mrs. Rachel Van Fossen, died from poison. They were found dead in their home by the mother of the children when she returned from work last night. Inasmuch as the grandmother had threatened to kill the children, it is thought she administered poison to them and then committed suicide. The contents of the stomach will be examined.

Asked by Landsdowne to Stop War

IMPASSIONED SPEECH MADE AT LONDON

Vivid Picture of Bloodshed in Far East.

A STRONG PLEA FOR PEACE

Bold Bid for Intervention in the Russo-Japanese War is Made by the Englishman.

London, Nov. 10.—Lord Lansdowne, in the absence of Premier Balfour, who is ill, at the historic Lord Mayor's banquet, held last night made a strong plea for peace and arbitration on behalf of the British Government. He pointed out that arbitration was the only way in which the North Sea dispute could have been equitably settled, and almost in the same breath drew a vivid picture of the horrors of the struggle now proceeding in the far East.

Between the lines of every reference the Foreign Minister made to the Russo-Japanese war was an urgent plea, amounting almost to a demand, that it might be settled by arbitration. It was a carefully prepared statement before what is considered the most representative gathering of leading men of Great Britain. As such, it was generally interpreted as a bolder bid for intervention than has yet emanated from any foreign Power.

America was written large in this speech, for which Great Britain has been waiting for many days.

The Foreign Minister prefaced his remarks by saying "that great statesman, John Hay, recently remarked that war was the most futile and fallacious of human follies." Then came an impassioned review of the North Sea affair. Although Lord Lansdowne was unable to announce the signing of the convention he emphatically confirmed statements made in these dispatches, namely, that Great Britain had found "No difficulty in arriving at a solution in principle of the dispute," and only supplemented what is already known by the statement that Russia has guaranteed the punishment of any other officers in addition to those already detached from Admiral Rojestvenski's squadron who might be proved to have been implicated.

By most of his auditors, who last night had their first opportunity of hearing the Foreign Office's views, and who hitherto had based their ideals on Mr. Balfour's much-criticized Southampton speech and belligerent editorial articles in the newspapers, Lord Lansdowne's utterances were regarded almost as a plea for Russia. He asked: "Could we have done better than get full apology and compensation and leave the question of facts to an international tribunal with a guarantee of punishment of any who may be found guilty?"

Lord Lansdowne, in connection with the question of contraband, seriously reminded the audience that, Great Britain might some day be the greatest sufferer by a restriction of belligerent rights on the high seas.

After referring to the "widely prevalent desire" that arbitration might be resorted to in the case of the present war in the far East, Lord Lansdowne added:

"Mr. Cloete walked into my room yesterday and asked if we would sign an arbitration treaty with the United States. Simultaneously I received from President Roosevelt, whom we all most gratefully cheer, a message inviting us to participate in a second international peace conference at The Hague. It is needless to say that the invitation has not been refused, only we have reserved to ourselves the right to consider what subjects should be discussed. We hesitated not a moment in informing America that we were ready to participate and in wishing President Roosevelt Godspeed in his undertaking."

"Arbitration," concluded Lord Lansdowne, after a sympathetic reference to France's assistance in the North Sea dispute, "has become the fashion."

Speaking of the far East war Mr. Lansdowne said: "At this moment, contemplating the presence of the terrible struggle between two brave and gallant nations in the far East, can one of us contemplate without regret the legion after legion of brave men being led forth (Continued on Page 4.)"

The New Woman

Danger Lurks In Hypnotism

A MEDICAL man who has dabbled somewhat in phreological matters advises mothers to "hypnotize" their children into being good. He tells them how to conduct the process of hypnotism on the unconscious infants. Let not mothers dare to hypnotize their children! The doctor is guilty of a crime in giving such advice. He is simply telling a mother how to paralyze her children's free will and eventually destroy it for life. Annie Besant, who knows more of occult psychology than any snarler who trifles with it out of curiosity, said once in a lecture terrible in its vividness, "Better a drunkard should die of delirium tremens a thousand times over than that he should be cured by hypnotism." When opium is given to stop pain, the nerve centers are merely paralyzed for the time, so that they do not feel pain. If the dosing is continued long enough and in sufficient quantity the nerves are deadened permanently, and the subject dies. Precisely the same thing happens on the mental plane in case of hypnotization. The will, the highest, royalist faculty of the intellect, is dwarfed, stunted and finally destroyed by repeated hypnotizing. The subject becomes semi-imbecile, an automaton in the hands of the hypnotist. There is danger in submitting once to the hypnotist. A small part of his subject's will is thereby given into his hands, and he holds it ever after. The woman who lets herself be hypnotized even "for fun" knows not what she is doing. If I had space to tell you some of the facts known to me on this subject! One thing, however, be assured of—no human being can be hypnotized against his or her will. You have your will, against the process. Hold your individuality against those who try to draw you into their societies or sects, into matrimony or doubtful financial enterprises.

Here is a sentence from a recent screed written by a white male against equal rights for women: "An inborn chivalry compels man to protect women and children." At the same time in the newspapers appeared a shocking story with the following headlines: "Men Trampled Women and Babies to Escape. Scenes of Cowardice at Fire That Cost Six Lives. Of Fourteen Victims All but One Were Young." What do you think of man's inborn chivalry?

In Paris Mme. Balli, a lady of fashionable society, has established an asylum for stray and homeless dogs. Thousands of canines are cared for every year by her. Now, if some fashionable society lady would only establish a home for stray and unwelcome babies, perhaps so many of these would not meet their death every year.

In St. Louis, while there at the fair, I saw beautiful women riding astride, dashing swiftly and safely along the broad suburban highways. Riding astride is all the fashion there, one is glad to note. Sated upon the cross saddle a woman can be quite as skillful a rider as a man.

I wonder if when the Almighty created women's hands he created them for the purpose of holding up women's trailing skirts?

What does George Eliot say? "It is better to be an old maid than an old fool."

It is a wonder more girls and women do not take up farming, gardening and live stock and poultry raising. In every one of these branches of rural occupation women over and again have proved themselves successful. Mrs. Meredith of Indiana long ago became famous for Shorthorn cattle. More recently Miss Mary E. Way, a Connecticut girl, has succeeded in turning a stony little farm into a miniature gold mine by her skill in rearing Holstein and Jersey dairy cattle. She accomplished in five years what the majority of men farmers cannot do in a lifetime.

Sh-sh-sh! Don't make fun of woman's rights advocates any more. They are getting to be the fashion.

There is nothing better for women than at least some years of money earning outside of their own homes. It gets a woman away from little fool personalities, the narrow, pitiable, me and my children, my daughter Jane and her children, when a woman has the intellectual breadth to recognize that every other mother's children are just as dear to the Almighty as her own are or he would not have created them, then we may hope for the millennium.

Miss Pearl T. Campbell of Bayonne, N. J., won this year the Scott Leary medal and prize from the Franklin Institute for original invention. She has devised a woman away from little fool personalities, the narrow, pitiable, me and my children, my daughter Jane and her children, when a woman has the intellectual breadth to recognize that every other mother's children are just as dear to the Almighty as her own are or he would not have created them, then we may hope for the millennium.

SELF CONSCIOUSNESS.

It Prevents Many a Girl From Achieving Success.

The diffident woman generally has her parents to thank for the handicap. The diffident woman is generally the self-conscious woman. Now, self-consciousness begins in childhood, and if parents care to prevent it the remedy lies in their hands.

"I had to pass the building three times before I had the courage to go in."

"How did you ever have the courage to do it?"

"I would rather die than ask for anything!"

"I simply can't sing when there is any one around!"

"Why, I am so scared when I have that line to speak all alone in the middle of the stage that I can hardly say it!"

How often you hear that sort of thing—scared, afraid, don't dare!

"One reason why I am not more fond of the majority of my sex is that they are all so self-conscious and afraid of their own shadows," remarked a woman recently. And I had to agree with her.

As long as you are not doing anything you should not be afraid. And why at all times be so foolishly self-conscious that you think people are watching your slightest movements?

"I think it is so delightful of you, Miss Brown," said the hostess, "to sit down at the piano without being urged and play so simply whatever you happen to know."

"You can thank my mother for that," laughed the girl. "She told me she would let me take piano lessons only on condition that I would sit down and play without any fuss, no matter who asked me. She added that if I did make mistakes it would not make any more difference than if I were alone, because no one expected perfection from a child. It put me so much at my ease that I have never been troubled with self-consciousness."

SIMPLE EFFECTS.

Treatment of Rooms Which Differ From the Ordinary.

Originality is the keynote of the successful interior decorator. No time or effort is adhered to, but the continual effort is to reach a new effect. Several of the modern English decorators have distinguished themselves in this manner, and the picture shows you a drawing room designed by one of them.

It is very simple. The walls are covered with old rose tapestry paper. The mantelpiece of snowy marble in an odd shelf design supplies the note of relief. The room is lighted, contrary to usage, with stained glass lanterns inclosing electric bulbs. The woodwork is mahogany. The chairs are mahogany with tapestry coverings. The floor is covered with several small rugs instead of one large one. The windows, which are not shown in the picture, are small and paneled and outward.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

The man who wrote that a thing of beauty is a joy forever wasn't acquainted with either women or milliners.

The way of the transgressor is often barred.

It is so plain to the Russians, they think all who cannot see the yellow peril are color blind.

Some people seem to be mighty fond of their troubles, the way that they cultivate their acquaintance.

It is cruel the way some folks have of dashing the budding hopes of a boy by telling him that he looks like his father.

The average young man does not mind having a check to his career if the figures run up into the thousands.

The wild wailing of the autumn winds would sound mournful if we did not know that that is a little game they play every year.

You can't always tell by the size of a woman's pompadour how long it took to comb her hair.

Some people chase illusions, others bug delusions. The result in each case is apt to be confusion.

The idle poor have a hard time hustling to live and keep idle.

A counterfeit bill and a bad reputation are alike in that you can't lose either.

Sunrise.

Across the blue gray of the eastern hill That softly all the lonely night has slept There creeps a sudden, soft, compelling thrill.

As when an angel hand a harp has swept, And all along the far horizon's brim A rosy blush grows through the darkness dim.

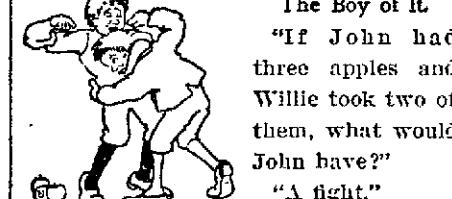

The empty fields lie glittering with frost, The dull, dun shadows vanish one by one And in the distant realms of night are lost.

Abashed and frightened by the coming sun, Athwart the sky a flood of light sweeps on, A moment more and all the night is gone.

The world all new and recreated lies A-tremble for the coming of its king I've heard that this magnificent sunrise, So fair and glorious, is a daily thing; It happens every morning, it is said, While most of us are pillow bound in bed.

But while I've stood the sunrise to behold, All shivering, in sleeping garment clad, I've chilled and bargained for a busby's coil.

It's strenuous and tough, this early fade, It turns out not as pleasant as it seems; I'd rather see the sunrise in my dreams.

The Boy of It.

"If John had three apples and Willie took two of them, what would John have?"

Just a Match.

"Jones must be very fond of pumpkin pie. Mrs. Jones serves it so frequently."

"That's no sign he likes it. He harmonizes perfectly with the new color scheme that his wife has just put in the dining room."

Owed on Pay Day.

Oh, pay day, how we hail thee— A paycheck for our woes! When thy pale glimmering dawn we see, You're welcome, goodness knows!

Then for awhile we stand up straight And hold our heads on high, But our last dollar, soon or late, We kiss a fond goodbye.

Had to Do It.

"Brown is a clever talker, isn't he?"

"I should think he ought to be. He lives in a house with his wife, his mother-in-law and five sisters."

Fickle.

"Mary Ann married? I thought she was wedded to her art."

"Yes, but that was before she met up with the section boss."

Naturally.

"Why does Grayson's face have such a drawn look?"

"Why, don't you know he's a confirmed rubber neck?"

Try It.

It's lots of fun when skies are dun And you can't help repining, To yell so loud you burst your cloud And find the silvery lining.

Just the Age.

"What is a man to do if he can't get work after he is forty-five?"

"Can't he start out as a boy orator?"

Looking Out For Number One. "Which candidate did he support?" "Neither one. It is all that he can do to support himself."

JAPAN'S DEAD HEROES

Regulations as to Their Treatment After Battle.

ALL THE BODIES ARE CREMATED.

A Bone From the Larynx and Some Hair of Each Soldier Are Preserved and Sent Home—Corpses of the Fallen of the Enemy Interred. Their Relics Also Saved.

The following are the Japanese army regulations for the treatment of a battlefield of the wounded and dead, says the Brooklyn Citizen:

The sick and wounded shall be dealt with according to the field regulations of the army medical service, and the killed shall be honored and respected according to their rank, whether they belong to the imperial army or to the enemy.

As minute an examination as possible shall be made from the pocketbook, marks on uniform, identification tag, etc., as to the full name, rank, position, relatives and regiment of any one found dead.

The corpses of those belonging to the imperial army shall be cremated, while those of the enemy shall be interred, except when contagious and infectious diseases are prevalent, when all corpses, even those belonging to the enemy, shall be cremated. No burial shall be made until death has been definitely ascertained.

As regards the selection of ground for interment, the following provisions should be noted: The ground must be some distance from any road, town, village or garrison and at a distance from sources of springs, streams, wells or other sources of drinking water. The ground must be on high land or gentle slopes, and the soil must be loose and more or less dry.

The corpses of those belonging to the imperial army should be cremated separately, and one of the bones (the larynx) sent home. When circumstances prevent this being done only the hair shall be buried temporarily on the field. When circumstances prevent separate cremation the N. C. O.'s and privates shall be cremated together and the hair only sent home.

Bones of officers, warrant officers and senior noncommissioned officers should be given separate burial. The bones of other ranks should also be buried separately, but when circumstances do not permit they may be buried together. In any case, the bones of senior N. C. O.'s and warrant officers must be given separate burial.

In the case of interment of corpses belonging to the enemy the following provisions should be noted: The corpses of officers and senior N. C. O.'s should be buried separately. The corpses of other ranks should also be buried separately or in numbers of less than fifty together.

In every case of burial the proper funeral rites shall be observed and shall be conducted by the Shinto or Buddhist priests, chaplains or priests of any other religion.

The personal effects of the dead of the imperial army shall be packed with the bone and hair, addressed with full name, rank and regiment of the deceased, and the package forwarded to the divisional headquarters where the deceased was mobilized or to the office where the organization of his corps took place.

The name, age, nationality, position, rank and regiment of the dead of the enemy shall, if known, be entered on a list, and the list shall be sent by the divisional headquarters or by the officer left in command to the prisoners' information bureau at Tokyo. Personal effects, with the exception of arms, horses and maps, shall be packed, and the package addressed with the full name and rank of the deceased and forwarded to the above named office.

A Night Life Saving Booy.

A novel life saving device has been added to the equipment of steamers on Lake Michigan in the night buoy, designed to prevent the drowning of persons falling from a vessel in the darkness. The buoy, above which will burn a brilliant gas jet, is by means of chemicals lighted as soon as it strikes the water. The devices are being fitted aboard the steamers Columbus and Virginia of the Goodrich line.

Mrs. Theodora Stewart.

By the recent death in Melbourne of Mrs. Theodora Stewart in her ninetieth year the first lady who sang the title role of "Marianne" in the southern hemisphere has passed away. She herself always maintained that she sang the part in Sydney before the first production of the opera in Drury Lane in November, 1845. She was well acquainted with its composer, the gifted but erratic Irishman, William Vincent Wallace, who was a resident of Sydney in the late thirties.

Last of the Six Hundred.

Thomas Yates, of Toledo, O., believed to be the sole survivor on this side of the Atlantic of the "noble six hundred" who made the famous charge at the battle of Balaklava Oct. 25, 1854, has just celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of that event immortalized by Tennyson in his "Charge of the Light Brigade." Mr. Yates, though eighty-one years of age, works every day and shows in many other respects the clear grip of the men who rode "into the jaws of death" on that famous and fatal day.

Hardly Beautiful.

They did not try to knock the girl, it should be understood. Still every time that you met said Mary was so good.

BREVITIES

THE HALL OF FAME.

Rev. Allan B. Philpott of Indianapolis has been elected president of the Sons of the Revolution in Indiana.

John Howard, superintendent of the Boston and Albany railroad, has been appointed assistant superintendent of motive power on the New York Central.

Angelo Demarco, a young Italian bootblack of Stanton, Conn., proved his industry last week by purchasing a house and lot for $2,200 of his savings.

Ex-Governor Murray Crane of Massachusetts, appointed to the vacancy caused by the death of United States Senator Hoar, began life as a ragpicker, but in his father's big paper mill.

Edward Clark, head of the sewing machine company that conceived the idea of selling goods on the installment plan, died worth $20,000,000. His widow is now the wife of Bishop Potter.

It is seldom that a man holds a diplomatic post for almost forty years. Such is the record of Dr. Juan N. Navarro, the Mexican consul general at New York, who died at his home there a few days ago.

Refugees from Port Arthur say that Mine Stoesel, wife of the famous Russian general, takes the lead in the Red Cross work and is almost constant in attendance at the hospital, tenderly caring for the wounded.

Hans Richter, the eminent Wagnerian conductor, left Austria and settled in England some years ago because he could not make five times as much money in Birmingham as in Vienna. He has a large family to support and launch in the world.

The late Professor Finsen seemed to rather enjoy poverty. When he received one of the Nobel prizes last year he wanted to give the whole sum for the benefit of his institute, and it was with difficulty that his friends persuaded him to put aside one-half of it for himself and family.

The late Postmaster General Payne began boy in the postal service—an errand boy in the postoffice of his native town, Sutherland Falls, Mass., at $1 per week—than any other employee known. Ex-Postmaster General Thomas L. James of New York began as a clerk in the Gotham postoffice, and his career had been most phenomenal.

GERMAN GLEANINGS.

The colossal statue of Prince Bismarck being erected at Hamburg will be unveiled in 1906. Its height is over fifty feet, and the sword is thirty-six feet long.

When the Kaiser drove through Hameln recently hundreds of children stood along the route, dressed either as rats or in the picturesque costume of the famous Pied Piper's period.

The German Count of Wurttemberg is agitating the formation of a novel school in Germany, which shall have as its object the instruction of people who are considering the advisability of emigrating to other lands.

A careful examination by experts of the books of the Berlin Municipal People's library that have been in circulation over two years has resulted in the discovery that most of them are infected with germs of tuberculosis.

How great is the damage done by hail in Germany is shown by the fact that in Bavaria alone last year it amounted to more than $5,000,000. The number of fields damaged was 70,439. In southern Bavaria 42 per cent of the agriculturists suffered more or less.

BRITISH BRIEFS.

The famous marble staircase of the Glasgow municipal buildings cost £30,000.

For the first time since 1866 men other than ex-men-of-war's men are being recruited for the London fire department.

The National gallery in London has purchased Titian's portrait of Ariosto for $150,000. More than two-thirds of the sum was paid by several millionaires.

New Zealand newspapers are wailing war against the English novelists' habit of making the antipodes the dumping ground for their paper villains and other bad characters.

Fewer persons died and a less number were born throughout England and Wales last year than in 1902, while in London itself both births and deaths were the fewest recorded for many years.

An English naval cadet who on his training ship took eleven first prizes and in the first examination obtained 97.6 per cent was rejected at the medical examination on account of a small defect in one little toe.

ANIMAL TALES.

It is easier to domesticate a humming bird than a canary.

The puma is the largest animal of the cat species to be found in the United States, at times attaining a length of six feet.

Of all the bugs the potato bug is one the Guatemalan ant will not partake of. The ant will eat grasshoppers and most other insects.

W. H. Boyer, a Portland musician, says his dog, a fine spaniel, committed suicide because he was shut up in the kitchen instead of being taken out as usual for a walk. At any rate, when Mr. Boyer returned there lay Brown Boy dead, with his nose against an open gas jet in the kitchen stove.

This overwhelming Republican majority is top-heavy. It will fall to pieces of its own weight. Many thousands who helped swell the majority will be fooled and the discontent, bickerings and conflicts that are bound to come can scarcely be contemplated. The over-jubilant Republican managers will have conditions and difficulties to confront that they little dream of now. They will be singing a different tune before a year rolls around. The Democrats will have their innings in due time.

The outcome of the State election in Colorado will be watched with interest by the whole country. Both parties claim to have elected their candidate for governor, and it would not be strange if trouble should result before the matter is finally decided. Governor Peabody, judging by his past acts, would not hesitate to try to hold on to the office he now holds by forcible means if the election figures should prove to be close. In that event a most serious situation would be presented, one which might require Federal interference to settle. It is to be hoped, therefore, that the returns when all in will show such a decided victory for the Democratic candidate that even Governor Peabody will not have the audacity to dispute the result.

While the Japanese report having made further progress during the last few days toward the capture of Port Arthur, the Russians are still making good their defense. The Japanese commander having heard from a Russian deserter of the dissatisfaction among the garrison and the feeling that is said to exist in favor of surrendering sent the man back into the place with a proclamation urging a capitulation and promising humane treatment. The man is said to have returned to the Japanese lines with the statement that a great impression had been created by the proclamation among the Russian soldiers, who had been informed by their officers that the Japanese proposed to massacre them. There may be something in this tale, as it is not unlikely that there is an element among the garrison anxious to surrender. Still there is no good reason to believe that the place will fall except by a successful assault, which may be made at any time now.

DEFEAT

Due to Attempt to be Conservative, Says Bryan in a Statement at Lincoln.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 10.—Democracy's defeat is reviewed in a statement issued by William J. Bryan. He states: "Judge Parker's defeat was not local, but general, the returns from the eastern states being as disappointing as the returns from the west. The reorganizers are in complete control of the party, they planned the campaign and carried it on according to their own views, and the verdict against their plan is an unanimous one. Surely silver can not be blamed for this defeat, for the campaign was run on a gold basis. Neither can this defeat be charged to emphatic condemnation of the trusts, for the trusts were not assailed as vigorously this year as they were four years ago. It is evident that the campaign did not turn upon the question of imperialism, and it is not fair to consider the result as a personal victory for the president, although his administration was the subject of criticism.

"The result was due to the fact that the Democratic party attempted to be conservative in the presence of conditions which demand radical remedies. It sounded a partial retreat when it should have ordered a charge along the line. The Democratic party can not hope to compete successfully with the Republican party for the plutocratic support. To win the support of the plutocratic element of the country the party would have to become more plutocratic than the Republican party, and it could not do this without losing several times as many votes as that course would win."

Now that the campaign is over, Mr. Bryan says he will assist those who desire to put the Democratic army once more upon a fighting basis; he will assist in organizing for the campaign of 1908. He says the party must continue to protest against imperialism, stand for independence of the Philippines, declare death to private monopoly, continue its opposition to national banks of issue, and insist upon divorcing the treasury department from Wall street.

Prince Fushimi Arrives.
San Francisco, Nov. 10.—Prince Saduaro Fushimi, cousin of the emperor of Japan, who comes to this country to pay a special visit to the president of the United States, arrived at the Washington street dock two hours later, and from there driven to his hotel. He refused to be interviewed at that time, saying that his visit was purely one of courtesy. He was accompanied by a suite of seven members.

All Attacks Repulsed.
Chefoo, Nov. 10.—A junk which left Port Arthur on Nov. 7 has arrived here, bringing the news that the garrison up to that time had repulsed all Japanese attacks. The junk was intercepted by a Japanese torpedo boat, which confiscated all the correspondence on board. Two Chinese who were on board were executed by the Japanese.

ABRAM JONES

Who Has Voted Democratic Ticket for Sixty Years, Cast Ballot as Usual Tuesday.

Mr. Abram Jones, who has voted the Democratic ticket for 60 years, having cast his ballot for James K. Polk way back in 1844, came in from his country home in Newark township near the point where the Granville and Newton township lines touch, on Tuesday, and voted the straight ticket as usual.

Mr. Jones, who is now 84 years of age, is in the possession of all of his faculties and his physical condition is remarkable for a man of his advanced years. Mr. Jones has the distinction of having had fewer birthday anniversaries than any man of his age in the county, as he happened to be born on the 29th day of February 1820.

ROBBERS

TIGHTLY BIND TREASURER IN A VAULT.

And Get Away With $15,000—Treasurer Released After Sixteen Hours' Confinement.

Prescott, Ariz., Nov. 10.—James E. Storm, county treasurer of this county, has been found locked in the steel vault of his office, bound and gagged with $15,000 missing from the cash funds of the treasury. Mr. Storm had been in the vault 16 hours when found by his daughter. He says that about 5 o'clock while seated in his office two men entered the door with handkerchiefs tied over their faces, and pressing a revolver to his head, ordered him to throw up his hands. Storm complied and the two men closed the door of the office and produced a string of baling wire with which they securely bound his feet and hands. They forced a handkerchief into his mouth and pushed him into the vault.

After gathering up $15,000 and leisurely ransacking the office for more money the men closed the door of the vault, locked it and departed. Storm was unable to give an accurate description of the men.

IN THE BATH

On Board Ship. He Severed an Artery While Cutting Soap and the Kentuckian Died.

Newport News, Va., Nov. 10.—William Madison Polk met death in a peculiar manner on board the auxiliary cruiser Prairie, now attached to the training ship squadron in Hampton Roads.

The man was a seaman on the ship and went into the bathroom to bathe. He took a cake of soap, and placing it on his leg, started to cut it in two with a knife. The soap was softer and the knife sharper than he thought, and the blade entered his leg, severing some of the arteries.

When found Polk was at the point of death and was only able to tell how the accident occurred before he became unconscious from the loss of blood, and died. The man was a native of Taylorsville, Ky.

to meet their fate and the ruined homes and broken hearts? We can conceive no more terrible punishment than the remorse of any Minister or body of Ministers who from loss of temper or desire of popularity brought upon the country the scourge and calamity of needless war."

The 250 guests, in addition to former Mayor Kitchit, who is succeeded by John Pound, and the Marquis of Marchioness of Lansdowne, included the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Most Rev. Randall T. Davidson, the members of the Cabinet, the foreign representatives, members of Parliament and other prominent persons.

War Secretary Arnold Foster, replying for the imperial forces, said the navy lately had attracted the attention of the country by showing its efficiency and mobility for the service of the nation. The army, especially the administration thereof, had always been criticized, but it was the determination of the Army Council not to rest until the British army was ready to enter the field at any time with absolute confidence in success.

DENISON

NOW HARD AT IT FOR SATURDAY'S GAME AT CLEVELAND.

Nettled by the Tie With Kenyon, Granville Boys are Putting Ginger in Their Practice.

Granville, O., Nov. 10.—The fumble by Captain Van Voorhis that enabled the Kenyon team to tie the score Saturday was a bitter pill for the 'varsity' to swallow. It was the first costly misplay of the season. Then, too, it seems that the men didn't play their game, too much individual playing and not enough team work. If it is overconfidence that took hold of the 'varsity' after the big victory over Wooster this tie with Kenyon will be a good lesson for the Denison team and harder work will be put into the games the remainder of the season. That Denison was superior to Kenyon was quite evident, but at critical points Denison was sure to be penalized and this brought much dissatisfaction to the Denison admirers, who claim that the officials were partial.

The Granville boys will play Reserve next Saturday in Cleveland and the fact that W. R. T. has a strong team is well appreciated here. The way Coach Stanton started in Monday to put the 'varsity' into shape for the Cleveland game shows that a big game is looked for. All the men appear in good condition, with the exception of a few sore spots. Howell, though he was out with his suit on, didn't enter the Kenyon game. It was thought best not to run any chances, but to have the "old reliable" guard in good form for the Reserve game. In Saturday's game the Kenyon players found it difficult to break Denison's line, but at times made good gains around the ends, so special attention will be given the ends the remainder of the week. The interference for the end runs will also need special coaching.

ZANESVILLE

Football Team Coming to Newark on Saturday to Play the High School Boys.

Zanesville, Nov. 10.—Next Saturday the High school team of this city will journey to Newark to play the High school eleven of the Licking county capital. It will be recalled how the local team was defeated in this city recently by the score of 26 to 0. Newark is thought to be equally as strong at the present time. It will also be remembered how Morehead was defeated in Newark by the High school team of that place by the score of 18 to 0.

PRETTY GIRL

Convicted by the Louisville Jury. Says She Has a Mania for Stealing Horses.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 10.—Mabel Landwehr, a pretty 17-year-old girl, pleaded guilty to the charge of horse stealing in Criminal court and was sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary by the judge. Judge Pryor set aside the sentence and committed the girl to the School of Reform, where she must remain until she is 21 years of age.

Miss Landwehr sold the Court that she was a mania for stealing horses. She said that she had not resorted to the temptation to do so until she was 14. No one was looking at her and she requested that she be placed under restraint.

The theft to which Miss Landwehr pleaded guilty was the second of the kind she had committed this year. She has for some time been living in Louisville, having an aunt in Portland, Last June she went to the stable of A. B. Hill and hired a horse and buggy with the understanding that they would be returned and paid for later in the day. Nothing was heard of her until about eight days later, when she and the horse were located in Ohio, about ten miles north of Cincinnati.

SAFELY THROUGH MOTHERHOOD WITHOUT PAIN.

What a wonderful message of hope and escape from suffering these words carry to that woman who is dreading the hour that shall proclaim her Motherhood. Perhaps for her it is the first time God has blessed her; with what awe and mystery and fear she contemplates the coming event which even now is causing its shadow before in the way of many joyful days. The joy held out in these words simply means that childbirth has been turned into an event of thanksgiving and joy, stripped of its agonies and dangers because of the learned skill of man.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

is the name of the remedy which means so much to the expectant mother; she can apply it herself and feel an improvement at once which but foretells the pain and suffering which it saves when childbirth takes place. The testimony of Mothers who have used it successfully will convince you; their words of praise are found in our book, "Motherhood." Send for it.

THE COURTS

MRS. McLAUGHLIN HAS SUED THE PANHANDLE FOR DAMAGES.

Asking for $10,400 as the Result of Injuries Sustained This Fall—Other Court News.

Martha J. McLaughlin, by her attorneys, Smythe & Smythe, has commenced suit in the Common Pleas Court against the Pittsburg, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Chicago Railway Company, for $10,400 damages.

The plaintiff alleges that on September 4, 1904, as she was attempting to cross the railroad tracks on East Main street in this city, she was struck by an engine belonging to the defendant, and that she was knocked down and the ribs of her right side broken and crushed, her breast and stomach bruised and cut, her back bruised, cut and lacerated, her hair cut, and a portion of the scalp and hair torn off; that she was also bruised on the left side of her body, and was shocked and violently thrown, pitched and rolled on the ground, and by reason thereof was crippled, maimed and internally injured, and was rendered unconscious for a period of ten hours.

The plaintiff claims that when she approached the tracks on her way home, the regular passenger train was passing over the crossing, at which time the gates were down, but before the train had entirely passed over the crossing the person in charge of the tower and of the operation of the gates carelessly caused the gates to be raised, indicating that the crossing was clear, but that when she attempted to go over the crossing she was struck by the engine, which was following the passenger train.

Plaintiff says that by reason of her injuries she has been confined to her bed, unable to arise therefrom until the present time, and is still confined thereto. She says that during all this time she has suffered great pain and agony and believes that she will never recover from her injuries as long as she lives; that she has been put to great expense in the effort to cure her injuries, for nursing and medical attention, in at least the sum of $300; that by reason of her suffering and injuries she has been damaged in the sum of $10,400, and therefore asks judgment in the sum of $10,420.

In Common Pleas Court Thursday morning the trial of the case of Hooper Franklin vs. The Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Co. was resumed to the court and jury. The case will not be finished during the day. The plaintiff sues to recover an amount claimed to be due on an insurance policy he having sustained an injury to his foot some years ago. Hilliard, Hunter and Hunter.

Exceptions Taken.
In the case of John A. Chitote vs. The Newark, Ohio, Publishing Company, P. O. Donovan accepts to the third and final report of Carl Norpell as receiver of the defendant on the following grounds:

First, That the report should not be accepted as final until the costs in the case of T. O. Donovan against the Newark, O. Publishing Company in the Court of Common Pleas at Columbus, and in the Circuit and supreme courts have been paid.

Second, That the report should show what part of the costs have been paid and what part remain unpaid. J. R. Davies, attorney for Donovan.

To Sell Property.
In the case of Carl I. Price against John I. Price, Eva Price, Morris P. Price and Arthur A. Price, minors, and Bernard V. Price, the plaintiff, by his attorney, James H. Fitzgibbon, has filed a petition in the Common Pleas Court asking the Court for an order directing the sale of certain property in Union township, claiming that it will be for the benefit of all parties holding an interest in the real estate that the same be sold.

J. Jeffers, administrator of the estate of H. F. Prior, deceased, has filed his inventory.

Clio Barcus, executor of the will of Joseph Barcus, deceased, of Monroe township, has filed his inventory.

Relief of the Blind.

FRUSTRATED

In an Attempt to Deport Frank Mannix—Say That It Was a Plot.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Nov. 10.—Sheriff Edward Bell frustrated an attempted deportation of Frank P. Mannix, county clerk and recorder, a Democrat. Mannix had been marched a mile and a half from town by three men when the party was overtaken by the sheriff and a posse. Mannix was released and William Carruthers, Carl Evans and E. E. Cornelison were arrested on a charge of kidnapping. They furnished bonds of $500 each. Carruthers is the general freight agent of the Cripple Creek Central railroad, and for several years was deputy under County Recorder Mannix. The other two men arrested are miners. Their friends say that the affair was intended to be a joke, but Democrats allege that a plot had been hatched to get Mannix out of the way and tamper with the ballots which are in his custody.

CROWDED

Was the Courtroom in Which the Three Accused of Poisoning Waived Examination.

Vanceburg, Ky., Nov. 10.—Mrs. John Rose, Mrs. Thad Ruggles and Albert Harry, the adopted son of Mrs. Rose, jointly charged with the poisoning and murder of the late John Rose of Epworth, this county, have waived preliminary examination before County Judge Lee, and have been admitted to a joint bail of $1,000. Their cases will come up in the Circuit court Monday of next January.

Mrs. Rose appeared in court dressed in deep mourning. The prosecution asked the court to recognize their 19 witnesses, which was done, they being sworn by the clerk. Former Judge T. R. Phister of Mayville, was retained by the prosecution. Dr. Kramer of Cincinnati, was on hand with the arsenic he says he found from analyzing Rose's stomach. A big delegation from Mayville was present and the courtroom was crowded, half the attendants being women.

MISSOURI.

St. Louis, Nov. 10.—With incomplete returns at hand, and the result of the state and national election coming in slowly from the outlying counties, Roosevelt has broken the "solid south" by carrying Missouri for the Republican party for the first time in 30 years. Fifty-eight widely scattered counties out of 114 give the national ticket a plurality over Judge Parker of 12,292. Joseph W. Folk (Dem) for governor, receiving in the neighborhood of 35,000 ahead of the state ticket, is given a plurality of 3,000 in the same counties, which include the city of St. Louis. Carried with the Republican landslide are the candidates for congress in eight of the 16 districts, a Republican gain of seven, and the semi-official returns from the state legislative districts give a Republican majority of 14 on joint ballot in the next general assembly. This will mean the defeat of United States Senator Cockrell for re-election.

WEST VIRGINIA.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Nov. 10.—West Virginia seems to have kept pace with the rest of the Union at Tuesday's election. Returns have been received with considerable rapidity, and the result can be definitely stated. The Democrats concede that Roosevelt has carried the state by over 10,000, while the Republicans claim that Roosevelt's majority will be the largest ever given to any candidate by the state and may exceed 20,000. The Democrats have not conceded the election of William O. Dawson, the Republican nominee for governor, although his election is claimed by the Republicans by over 20,000.

DELAWARE.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 10.—Complete but unofficial returns give Roosevelt a plurality of 4,109 in Delaware. The indications at present are that the next Delaware legislature will again be deadlocked on the question of electing a United States senator to succeed Senator Ball, whose term expires March 4. The complete returns show that the new legislature will stand as follows: Democrats, 2; Union or Addicks Republicans, 22; regular or anti-Addicks Republicans, 9. Twenty-seven votes are necessary to elect a United States senator.

MINNESOTA.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 10.—When all the returns have been received it is claimed now that Roosevelt's majority will run close to 125,000, if not more. An estimate made from incomplete returns indicates 109,000 majority. The Republicans elected the shadow of doubt and the best of the state ticket, including a state legislature which is strongly Republican on joint ballot. John A. Johnson (Dem.) and S. W. Jones (Rep.) were elected governor and lieutenant governor respectively.

MARYLAND.

Baltimore, Nov. 10.—On the face of the unofficial returns of the vote cast on Tuesday received here up to a late hour, Maryland is Republican on the presidential ticket by a small majority. An official count may be required to decide the result. Three Republican congressmen, Frank C. Wachter, Sidney E. Mudd and George A. Pearce, were surely re-elected by fair majorities. Three Democrats, Thomas A. Smith, J. F. C. Talbot, re-elected, and Will were returned elected.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—Roosevelt's plurality in this state will exceed 100,000. In this city alone it is 21,832, and in the 1,627 interior precincts so far as heard from it amounts to $3,300, making a total of 105,142. The full delegation of eight congressmen will be Republican, and an overwhelming Republican majority in the legislature insures the election of a Republican successor to Senator Bard.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia, Nov. 10.—Complete returns have been received from less than one-half the counties in Pennsylvania. These show the remarkable

FIFTY CENTS A MONTH

A small bottle of Scott's Emulsion costing fifty cents will last a baby a month—a few drops in its bottle each time it is fed. That's a small outlay for so large a return of health and comfort.

Babies that are given Scott's Emulsion quickly respond to its helpful action. It seems to contain just the elements of nourishment a baby needs most.

Ordinary food frequently lacks this nourishment; Scott's Emulsion always supplies it.

Imitations always cost less than the original, hence the substitutes for Scott's Emulsion can be sold for a few cents less. But you're not saving anything when you buy them. Cod liver oil has a market value and you get the pure oil in Scott's Emulsion. That's the difference.

increase in Roosevelt's plurality over the estimated returns of more than 25,000 votes. If the present ratio of increase continues Roosevelt's plurality in this state will reach nearly 450,000.

RHODE ISLAND.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 10.—Complete returns show that in Tuesday's election President Roosevelt received the largest vote ever cast in Rhode Island, and his plurality of 16,000 is greater, with the exception of that of 1896, than any presidential candidate ever was given before.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 10.—Actual and estimated returns give Parker about 27,000 majority in the state. The Ninth district is the only one carried by the Republicans.

Prohibitionists Pleased.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—"Prohibitionists are well satisfied with the showing made in the election," said Oliver W. Stewart, national chairman of the party. "Returns received at national headquarters in this city indicate that Mr. Swallow, our presidential candidate, polled at least 200,000 votes, and the probabilities are that the final count will carry the number considerably beyond these figures. Our representatives at hand show that four of our candidates have been elected to the state legislature in Illinois, and we have an even chance of electing another member from one of the districts where the returns are incomplete. Indiana, Ohio and Illinois are showing up the best."

Western Headquarters to Close.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—Vice Chairman New, Secretary Dover and National Committeeman Lowden were confident at western headquarters that Missouri has been landed safely in the Republican column and the Mason and Dixon line once more broken. Preparations are being made to close the western headquarters in Chicago Friday. Secretary Dover will leave for New York on that day to assist Chairman Cortelyou in closing up the eastern headquarters, and later Mr. Dover will go to Washington, where he will open headquarters, preparatory to the inauguration of President Roosevelt March 4, 1905.

Folk Elected Governor.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 10.—Roosevelt has carried Missouri by 10,000 to 15,000. The only Democratic state candidate elected is Folk for governor, nor, who made a remarkable race against the Roosevelt landslide. His plurality will be about 25,000. The legislature is in doubt, with chances favoring a Republican body to select Senator Cockrell's successor. Republican congressmen have been elected in the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Tenth and Fifteenth districts.

President Congratulated.

Washington, Nov. 10.—President Roosevelt was overwhelmed with congratulations presented by many people in person, and received by mail and by telegraph from every state and from almost every city in the country. Thousands of telegrams have been received, and they are coming in an undiminished flood.

Bryan's Message to Adams.

Pueblo, Colo., Nov. 10.—Among many telegrams received by Governor Adams from all parts of the country is the following: "Hon. Alva Adams: Accept congratulations both upon your personal success and upon the triumph of constitutional government. W. J. Bryan."

Emperor William's Greeting.

Washington, Nov. 10.—President Roosevelt received the following cablegram from Emperor William: "Sincere congratulations. May heaven give you prosperity. May your good administration be happy and prosperous to the American people."
